

Clarence S. Eugene III

LEED Green Associate, OSHA 10 Architectural Associate

cse@manning.xyz

Clarence Eugene III joined Manning Architects in 2012 as a member of the New Orleans Arena Renovation Team, and has worked within the architectural and construction industry since 2005. Clarence has experience in both Residential and Commercial Design. The main focus of his work has been with retail, hospitality, healthcare, transportation, education, and Places of Worship projects. Recently Clarence works as a Project Manager and Owner Represented for New Orleans Public Schools a part of a joint venture with CBRE | Heery Vanir. Clarence manages seven schools as part of the Joint venture's team. Clarence also is proficient in the latest technology using 2D and 3D modeling software as well as Building Information (BIM) Modeling. Clarence is OSHA Certified and a LEED Green Associate.

PROJECT EXPERIENCE:

Orleans Parish School Board

Facilities Assessment, on-going
Project Management for various projects, on-going

Broadmoor/Louisiana Recovery School District

George Washington Carver High School, 2016

Archdiocese of New Orleans

St. David School Gymnasium and Classrooms, 2012

Xavier University of Louisiana

Student Housing, on-going

University of Holy Cross

Dormitory New Construction, 2018

New Orleans Ernest N. Morial Convention Center

Linear Park Master Plan & Design, on-going

Smoothie King Center

Interior Renovations Phase I & II, 2014
Concessions Renovation, 2013

Orleans Parish Hospital Service District

New Orleans East Hospital, New Orleans, Louisiana, 2013

Pinnacle Entertainment

L'Auberge Casino & Hotel Baton Rouge, 2010

Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport

Terminal Renewal and Improvement Program
Terminals A, B, C, 2010 - 2018

EDUCATION:

Bachelor of Architecture
Southern University of Baton Rouge, A&M College, 2010

Associate of Architecture
Design and Construction
Delgado Community College, 2005

REGISTRATIONS:

Leadership in Energy and
Environmental Design LEED
Green Associate

